

About Us

No matter what industry you're in, getting to the top is no small feat. Supreme success needs a deep knowledge base as well as strong work ethics and dedication to the market.

We at Sujin, deeply believe in providing the finest to our customers and as a result, today Sujin has become a brand synonymous with success.

Today, 'Sujin' is a name to know in architectural hardware, particularly in the field of various sorts of handles. The company produces a wide range of product collections in a wide range of materials, finishes, and designs to meet the equally diversified needs of clients.

The company has its all-in-house production facilities, backed with strict quality control procedures. At this point in time, the company has developed a reputation as a reliable supplier of high-quality products amongst the most distinguished customers.

Vision

Take your business to new heights by giving the best quality and most reliable product selection at the most affordable pricing.

The Quality Policy

To ensure that our products are of the highest quality, we employ stringent quality control procedures. We are adamant that the only way to control the market is to deal in the most transparent way and win people's hearts. And the best way to do this is by delivering things of the highest quality. This is how we build trusting relationships with the people we deal with.
